DUNKELD PUBLIC LANDS

On Sunday 13 October there was a very good and well attended Working Bee along Salt Creek from the Valley Road bridge to the walking bridges and also a section below the walking track below the hotel. Fallen trees and branches were cleared from the walking paths, as well as east of the Caravan Park to the bridge.

We will be spraying and cutting grass along the creek in the next week.

It was great to have around 28 people come along to assist with the work, which took approximately two hours. Corinne Smith came down with tea, coffee, scones and jam. A big thank you to everyone, well done!

These walking tracks are very popular with tourists and locals alike, so it's good to have them looking cleared and maintained and be proud of our town.

DUNKELD SAWMILL GROUP

Saturday was a very successful day at the Sawmill. Hopefully we helped attract more people to Dunkeld for the market.

Thank you to our members for all their hard work. They are continually improving the Sawmill. Many visitors look at the Sawmill and most comment favourably. Thank you, Museum members, for catering.

Thanks also to Geoff Inkster, Andrew Duyvestyn, Jayden McInnes and Jim Dark for providing things for visitors to look at.

We have a bit of timber to sell. Contact me or drop in at the Sawmill late on Fridays.

Our “FREE entry for Seniors” has proved very popular with numerous visitors enjoying a guided tour around the museum then sitting down to afternoon tea, sipped from real China cups.

Thanks to our young volunteers Makayla and Scarlet who played host to our visitors.

On 23 October we will be hosting approximately 70 Grade 3-4 children from the Gray Street Primary School (Patsy Waller, Heather Macgugan and John Smith will co-ordinate a program for their visit). We are currently setting up a mini classroom section to give the children a feel of what school was like in bygone days - we have had many school-related items donated to make this display possible.

On Saturday 2 November we will have a visit from the SAAB Car Club Victoria. They will be provided with afternoon tea before going on to visit the sawmill.

Don't forget to keep in mind our major fundraising event - Antiques Muster at Devon Park on Saturday 7 December, in the near future we will be asking for expressions of interest in this event to plan our logistics for the day. Our web manager Julie will have the Museum event website alive in the next few weeks.

250 Words from Father David

Two quick things about holidays.

I’m not sure what your experience of holidays is like, so I only offer you some reflections from my own experience.

The first thing I would want to say about holidays is that they are surreal. In the time leading up to the vacation you wonder what it will be like. Will the flight be on time, what will the food be like, will the weather be tropical? You sort of can sense it, almost smell it, taste it, but it is not the same reality as actually being there.

When you are actually there, on holidays and the weather is a sumptuous 20 degrees, when you are sipping a work of art, chilled beverage, at the pool side, when you are checking out the menu of the cheeky little restaurant you intend to patronise, it’s almost like you have to pinch yourself and ask, “Is this real?”

And then when you are home, the suitcase is unpacked, the email inbox is crammed, you look back and it all just seems like a lovely dream. In intangible, sigh worthy and surreal.

The other thing, about holidays and this is the life changing, life saving bit, is that holidays are essential. I have watched with some sadness a number of different folks from different walks of life think that they are OK. They’re not actually. Their ‘inner fuel tank’ is much more depleted than what they thought.

The consequences to themselves, to their workplace and to their loved ones can be quite noticeable and long lasting.

So whatever system you have for your holidays, make sure that you take them, plot for them, relish and ravish them. They are called ‘holy days’ for good reason and they are just as important as our knock about days of work.

If we worry too much about ourselves, we won't have time for others. Mother Teresa

A nice Lions story

Our District Governor, Michelle Chillis OAM, runs her family business and also finds time to do other things. Civic interest: volunteering with Saint John of God Geelong Hospital Auxiliary, Ballarat Hebrew Congregation and Geelong Lions Lodge Corio.

Sporting Interest: "The sports that I like to participate in are competitive shopping, dinner party cooking and meditative crafting."

One of those things you really had to know

In World War 1 some 3,000 Australian nurses served abroad in England, France, Italy, Egypt, Palestine, the Persian Gulf, Burma, India, Vladivostok, Abyssinia and on hospital ships and transports.

The first race is scheduled to begin at 12:40pm.

Held in the lead-up to Remembrance Day, the VRC is pleased to again be supporting the Poppy Appeal, with RSL volunteers selling poppy badges across the course.

Red poppy to be the official flower of Stakes Day 2024. Once again this year, the red poppy will replace the red rose traditionally worn on Stakes Day. The change in the official flower of Stakes Day has been made in recognition of Remembrance Day and in support of the RSL's annual Poppy Appeal.

For more than 100 years, the annual Poppy Appeal has raised funds through the sale of red poppies. Funds raised support veterans and their families: All who served, and continue to serve, as members of the Australian Defence Force, as well as veterans of allied nations, when in need.

This year racegoers will also have the opportunity to contribute to RSL Victoria's annual Poppy Appeal by purchasing a red poppy lapel pin from on-course RSL Sub-Branch volunteers.

RSL poppies can also be purchased at Woolworths and Officeworks stores, Victorian RSL Sub-Branched and from volunteers in the community.

250 Words from Father David

Some advice please.

I once wrote to a priest to ask for advice about funerals.

It seemed like a pertinent and good question to ask.

I'm not sure what I was expecting them to say. Something pragmatic and organised I hoped. This particular priest was particular about time and organisation.

The priest said lots of good things. Wise things. Like, listen ... a lot. Take your time. Take far too many notes. You never know which bit of information you might need later. Breathe afterwards. Give yourself time to decompress and reflect. What did I learn from that process? What will you do again? What will you definitely NEVER do again?

But the kicker was the closing paragraph and I come back to it time and time again. It's nothing practical or pragmatic. It's something that we should all keep on the front burner of our mind.

"Dear David,

Thank you so much for your letter. Yes, of course you must do all the organisation things, but the thing I try always to remember is that this person was and is just like you and I. Maybe it would help if I told you what happened today.

This morning was the funeral of a dear old soul who I only came to know in their 'mature' years when they were 'in care'. It's always the way. We are always the 'David come lately'. It's easy to forget that the deceased was once young, had a runny nose, skun their knee, had their heart broken and probably broke some hearts along the way. They had regrets and triumphs. They lived a life that should be celebrated and a soul that needs praying for... just like you and I.

A precious commodity is entrusted to you, David. Cherish it, care for it, lavish with all the respect and love that you would hope for yourself.

Dunkeld Consolidated School

Welcome to our new Principal

The Dunkeld Consolidated

School Council and school community would like to extend a very warm welcome to our new Principal, Mr Brad Smallman, who commenced at our school this week!

My Business Rules (MBR)

Market Days

My Business Rules (MBR) is an annual Grade 6 project, where the students come up with a business idea (a product) and market it to our community with the intention of selling as many of their products as they can to make a profit after expenses. They are encouraged to think about who would buy their products, where they could market their product and how they would advertise in order to corner the market in a competitive environment.

The school has provided each of the students with a small loan to get them started, which each student will pay back. If there is an overall profit at the end of the project, students will discuss where the proceeds will go to.

MBR Market Days will be held over two days on the timber walkway at the school:

- Wednesday 30 October at 1.40pm, and
- Wednesday 13 November at 11.10am.

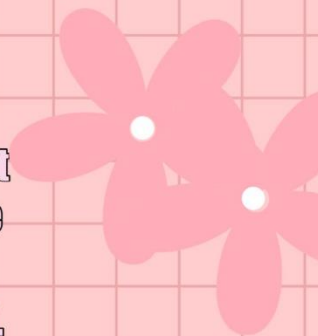

There will be eleven stalls at the Market Days and items available for purchase include:

- bracelets
- punchable cactus
- cow tags
- stickers and necklaces
- dry ingredient desserts
- flip books
- fidget spinners
- bat with a ball
- play dough
- stress balls
- juggling balls

On behalf of the Year 6 class, Isla Oldfield Mann and Henrietta Patterson, would like to invite school and community members to attend the MBR Market Days on 30 October and 13 November – please remember to bring cash (preferably small change) and a bag to place your purchases in!
